

Adverse credit

The adverse-credit lookback period is 24 months from the application date. Applicants with a default registered within this window are referred to manual review.

Affordability assessment

The maximum permitted debt-to-income ratio for unsecured lending is 45 percent. Stress testing applies a 3 percentage point rate increase to all variable commitments.

Document retention

Lending decision records are retained for 7 years after account closure. Customer identity evidence is retained for 6 years under the firm's KYC policy.